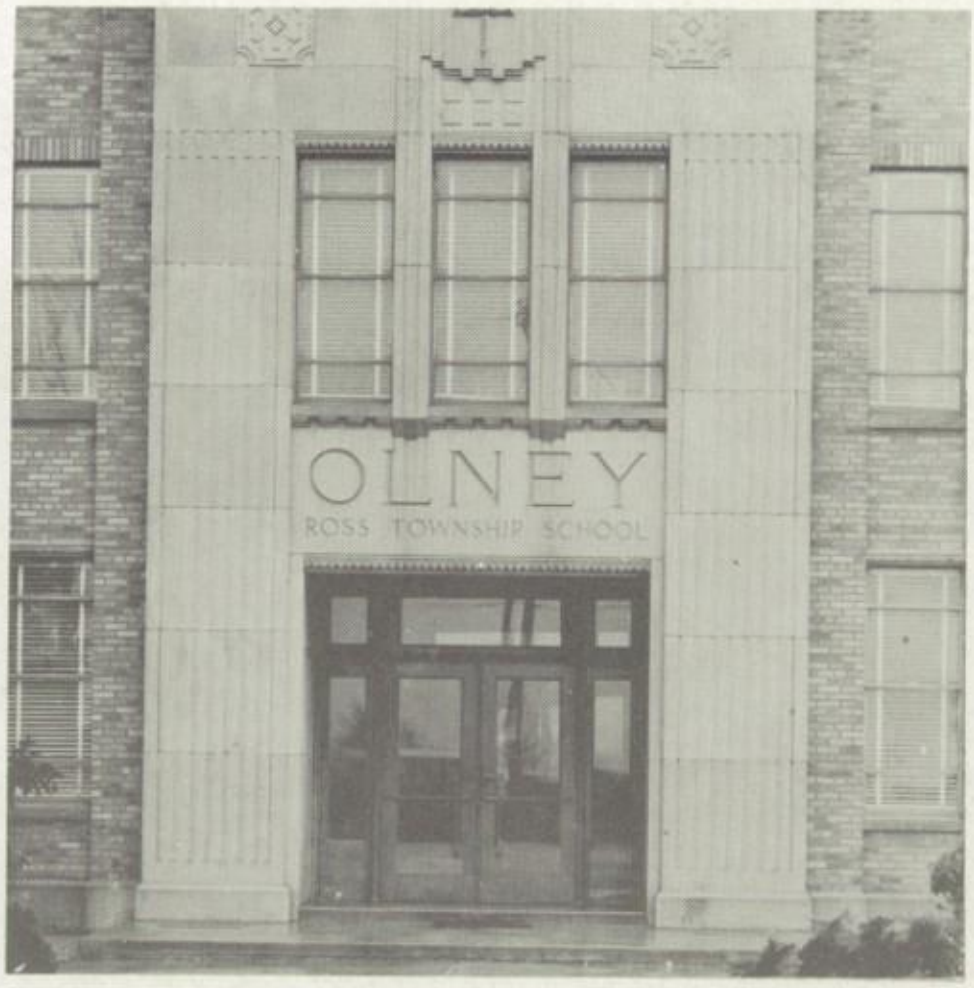
Dedication

To those of our young men who have graduated and have joined the armed forces to make this world a better place in which to live, we dedicate this Ninth issue of the "Olnette."

"And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."



Foreword

We, the Senior class of 1952, present this edition of the "Olnette" hoping it will serve as a future reminder of the days spent in school. It is with gratitude, we dare to look backward and visualize the road we have traveled and the blessings and benefits we have received. We have endeavored to record the events and life of our schools and to present them in a manner both interesting and entertaining.

We extend our hand in a firm grip of friendship. It is a friendship which has grown throughout the years and which, we hope, will last forever.

This is your book. May it recall many happy memories.

The Class Flower

We have chosen for our class emblem the beautiful carnation, the rich fragrant blossom that means so much.

The carnation stands for power—just such power as comes from education. When we pass the flower stand on the corner, though there may be a score of blooms represented in the collection, we detect the breath and strength of the carnation at once, and its scent lingers with us as we pass on down the street. It is just this way the best educated worker gets the best position in life.

Because of this, we feel it very appropriate as a symbol of our class, which finished its work in school, while others have stopped by the way, and been unable or unwilling to hold on until the end of the course.

Class History "52"

On September 7, 1940, seven from this year's graduating class started to school at Olney. They were: Bonita Adkins, James Brough, Louise Busson, Beverly Cramer, Fern Francis, Dale Heter, and Tom Pachelieff. Our first grade teacher was Miss Gertrude Rethinger, now Mrs. Tyler. She retired May, 1950, having taught for thirty-three years. Ours was the second class of beginners to start school in the new building.

Our second grade was taught by Miss Kathleen Lowry, who later married Ralph Hicks. She still lives in our school district. It was during this year that we were joined by three more students. They were: Melvin Moulton from Raymer School; Joan Meyers from Maumee; Marlene Simpson from Coy.

Our third grade teacher was Miss Charlotte Norton. We do not know where she is located now. It was during this year that we started to study geography and to learn our multiplication tables.

In the fourth grade we were joined by Donald Simon from St. Mary's Parochial School. Our teacher was Mrs. Rideout. She is still teaching here at Olney. One thing that we remember that year was our beautiful Christmas tree and party. Our teacher did not have to look very far for a Santa Claus.

Our fifth grade instructor was Mrs. Carrie Slemons. That year we had our start in art work. We continued our interest in the sixth grade under guidance of Mrs. Helen Morris. In this grade we started getting ready to go upstairs to junior high. We all felt very proud to have accomplished six years of school.

In the seventh grade we were joined by six students from Lark. They were: Joann Hatt, Ernest Hirzel, William McMullen, Joyce Pringle, Robert Stotz, and Jeannine Sutter. We had many parties that year and took care of our own library books.

In the eighth grade Kay Stewart and Marvel Wood came to us from Navarre School. We graduated from the eighth grade on May 21, 1948, with nineteen students. We were proud of our commencement exercises.

Our freshman year started out with lots of pep. We were all excited about being in high school. We had paper drives and they were big events. Wanda Cunningham from Lake, came to us that year.

When we were Sophomores we had noon dances. We also sold refreshments at the basketball games.

In 1950, we started our junior year. Our first event was the Varsity Swing in February, 1950. Then May 5, 1951 the Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Toledo Yacht Club.

On September 4, 1951, we were surprised and pleased to greet the Walbridge Seniors. They were Joyce Allen, Carol DeFalco, Marie Fox, Melvin Hall, Edward Lusher, Bill Middaugh, Phyllis Keefer, Joan Stover, Anna Lou Tiplady, Moira Jean Traver, Elouise Williams. We were also joined by Oleh Cieply. It has been a very happy and pleasant year.

Class Prophecy

On graduation night, the class of 1952 decided to have a class reunion four years from that very evening. We three girls, Carol De Falco, Elouise Williams, and Moira Jean Traver attended the reunion together. We talked with our former class mates and found that Bonita Adkins was a designer of teen-agers' fads and fashions for Seventeen Magazine. Joyce Allen was the owner of a large restaurant, which featured her world famous home-cooking and baking. Melvin Hall, of course, was her chief dishwasher. I, Elouise Williams, flew in from Washington where I was private secretary to the President of the United States. Jeannine Sutter had just won the title of Miss America. Joan Stover, who owned a famous race track, was unable to attend as she was ready for the Kentucky Derby and was very busy. Ed Lusher was the greatest lover to hit Hollywood since Rudy Valentino's time.

Jim Brough, after four years of trying, had finally been appointed bat boy for the Brooklyn Dodgers. Marlene Simpson couldn't be there, as she was engaged, not to Lawrence G. Kelly, but in flag pole sitting. She had been at the top of a pole for two years, eight months, and ten days. Beverly Cramer had been a majorette for three years at Ohio State and was doing a good job of it. Bill Middaugh was very busy managing the Toledo Mud Hens, and had the honor of getting the hens out of the coop. Joann Hatt had changed her name to Betty Newton and was employed by the Ohio Gas Company. Phyllis Keefer, a good skater, was the star performer in Skating Vanities. Bob Stotz had served his term in the Navy and had taken over Dr. Crane's column in the Toledo Blade. He read for us his latest advice to young married couples.

Bill McMullen, home on furlough from the Navy, told of his exploits on the high seas. He was surely handsome in his officer's uniform. Tom Pachelieff ran for governor of Ohio. He told us girls that if he were elected, he would save the state from bankruptcy, and protect the girls in Ohio from the wolves. Moira Jean Traver quickly gained popularity after graduation by writing a magazine article on "How To Be Plump and Beautiful." Ernie Hirzel told us of his Dancing School and to our amazement, brought in Carol De Falco who was his assistant. Anna Lou Tiplady had made a thorough study of new types of homes, and gave us a talk on the one that can be easily converted into an old maid's or old bachelor's quarters. Dale Heter, Secretary of the Treasury, was still crazy about money. Joanie Meyers, an outstanding cheerleader, had just returned from leading cheers at a Rose Bowl Game.

Marvel Wood already held the World Title of fastest typist with a speed of 713 words per minute. Marie Fox, having completed her nurses training at Mercy Hospital, was Superintendent of Nurses. Joyce Pringle really surprised us when she told us that she was a tight rope walker in Ringling Bros. Circus. Louise Busson had been working at the Toledo Edison Company since her graduation and visited schools, giving lectures on "Electric Cooking." Oleh Cieply flew home from China, where he was teaching Forestry at a girls' school. Wanda Cunningham taught the first grade at Olney. Melvin Moulton flew jet planes in the Air Force, and still made speed records. Ferne Francis received a trophy for swimming the English Channel. Kay Stewart was a teacher in Stautzenberger's Business College. Don Simon was a linotype operator for the Gray Printing Company.

Thus ended our Reunion of 1956.

Class Will

I, Bonita Adkins, will to Shari Wieland my ability to live on a farm and still raise cane, also I will my space in front of the mirror in the Home Ec. room to Shirley Everhardt, who always wanted it.

I, Moira Jean Traver, will to my sister Sandy my tendency to stay thin and to Donna Courter my unavoidable shyness.

I, Joan Stover, will to Luette De Falco my long hair and to Leila Nollert my ability to sing.

I, Joyce Pringle, will to Mayford Grant my shyness and pretty teeth.

I, Joyce Allen, will to Lois Koenig my ability to prepare oatmeal.

I, Joanie Meyers, will to Edie Mohn my cheerleading ability developed during the last three years of high school, and to Marjorie Good my ability to get into mischief and never get caught.

I, Beverly Cramer, will to Phyllis Jean Christiansen my ability to do skating and to have a fancy partner.

I, Marlene Simpson, will to Judy Haehl my ability to become engaged during my senior year and to Virginia Martin my ability to be a favorite of Mr. Knepper's.

I, Carol De Falco, will my ability to rhumba to my cousin Ralph and my long eyelashes to Ruby Baumgartner.

I, Jeannine Sutter, will to Larry Screptock the possibility of becoming senior class president and the power to calm the students down like I tried to do.

I, Don Simon, will to Jim Wheeler my ability to become class treasurer four years in succession and still remain broke.

I, Elouise Williams, will my nickname, Sugar, to Connie Stivison and my naturally curly hair to Martha Good.

I, Joann Hatt, will to Evelyn Ruch the chance to get into as much trouble as I did during senior play practice.

I, Bob Stotz, will to Jim Kurfis the opportunity to go steady with a senior girl and like it.

I, Bill Middaugh, will to Joe Mejia my baseball skill and to Dick Isbell the wave in my hair.

I, Ed Lusher, will my good driving to anyone who likes thrills.

I, Bill McMullen, will my good looks to Don Opblinger.

I, Jim Brough, will to Lorne Ellis my power to be the biggest pest in the senior class; also to Bob Baker my basketball and baseball knowledge.

I, Oleh Cieply, will to Eileen Wright my common sense in staying on good terms with the opposite sex.

I, Marvel Wood, will my bottle of peroxide to Hazel Hovermale and my prowess in getting out of study hall to Martha Lark.

I, Ferne Francis, will to Marlene Isbell my ability to drive a car without a license and get away with it; also to Roseva Meeks my business math book and chewing gum. I hope they make as good use of it as I did.

I, Anna Lou Tiplady, will to Betty Ulrich the possibilities of getting out of Mr. Knepper's class the last period of the day.

I, Dale Heter, will to Dick Collett my way with the girls and to Joe Bodi my curling iron.

I, Tom Pachelieff, will to Robert Fortin my ability to be a good salesman and get lots of ads for the annual.

I, Louise Busson, will to Dorothy Metzger my opportunities of getting kicked around in business arithmetic.

I, Melvin Hall, will my ability to shave to Frank Belcik.

I, Kay Stewart, will my ability to take down shorthand to Mary Lou Duquette, and to Dolores Thompson my books on marriage.

I, Phyllis Keefer, will to Jo Ann Saunders the cleverness of being the comedian of the senior class.

I, Wanda Cunningham, will to Pat Pelly my shyness and yet the ability to get along well with the kids.

I, Marie Fox, will my grades to Jim Witty, who would like to have them.

I, Ernie Hirzel, will all my money and my good job to Francis Rau.

I, Melvin Moulton, will to Bill Hammye my ability to be a stage manager for the senior play.

Valedictorian

Teachers, parents, and friends,

Tonight, this twenty-second day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, thirty-two more students have reached a goal for which they have long strived. It is with mixed emotions that we look upon the occasion. It is a happy time because we have reached the goal we have worked toward for twelve long years. Many of us are leaving school, never again to receive any formal education. It is to be hoped that we shall keep on learning and growing in the life into which we are about to enter. We have all taken courses that will help us in our chosen field, and in dealing with life's problems as they arise. Yet, it is a sad occasion, because we are forever leaving behind us our many friends, fellow students, and teachers, some never to be seen again. But we have one wonderful thing that no one can ever take from us. They can take a book, a picture, or some other object we cherish highly, but they can never take our memories and education.

We are entering into a troubled world; one which is caught in a deadly conflict between communism and democracy. We do not know what lies before us but it is a coward who refuses to go forward and meet it, whatever it may be. Some of us may one day be great and famous and others may be no more well known than they are right now. But the world is not made up of all great people. The greatest mass is made up of the common man and it is he who chooses the intelligent, well informed man to rule for him.

At this time I wish to take the opportunity to thank the Board of Education and our teachers for making this night possible, and for making our school years as pleasant as we could expect them to be. We all hope that your faith in us will be justified in the years to come, and that, perhaps, you will even be proud of us.

Now it is my sad duty to bid you good-bye on behalf of the graduating class but I prefer not to think of it as a final good-bye, for our memories of shared experience with our classmates will always be among our most prized possessions. And so it is with no regret for the past but with eagerness for the future, I bid you farewell in behalf of this graduating class of nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

"What America Means to Me"

About midnight of August 26, 1949, I was standing on board the ship, General Hersey. Beside me were standing other people. We were all displaced persons and we were all ready to enter the United States, the promised land at Boston Harbor. As the first lights of the harbor appeared on the horizon, from everybody's lips escaped the same word. What was it? It was America. At that time the word America had a very special meaning for me. It meant freedom. It meant democracy. It meant the same rights and privileges for every human being.

In the United States a person may own as much property as he can afford and it is his property. He has the exclusive right to it. He can speak the language he desires and it is his language and nobody is going to forbid it. A person can voice his own opinion, favorable or not favorable, for an important issue and nobody is going to make him keep quiet. He may pray as he desires and nobody will dare to keep him from doing it the way he feels he ought to do it. A person can do anything he desires, as long as he does not infringe upon the rights of another person.

Therefore, since I have lived under the shadow of communism and really know its ravages, its destructions and its hardships, I can truthfully and sincerely say that I am thankful I now live in America, the land of the Free.

May Queen

Marlene Simpson

On the cold evening of January 10, 1934, a warm and cuddly bundle was delivered to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Simpson, Flint, Michigan. Her mother at once said she was a born queen and named her Marlene Patricia. On May 22, she will be the queen of May.

Marlene came to Olney in her second year of school. She is now 5' 2½" tall, weighs 115 pounds, has beautiful brown eyes and light brown hair. Marlene's favorite pastimes are: driving, swimming, dancing, and most of all eating.

MAY QUEEN AND HER
MAID OF HONOR

Marlene Simpson, Phyllis Keefer

Popularity King and Queen

Ernest Rudolph Hirzel. In the year 1932 many disastrous things were happening in the world situation but on June 30, the stork delivered a tiny blue eyed boy to the Hirzel household. His parents decided to call him Ernest Rudolph Hirzel but later his friends nicknamed him Tuzzel or more familiar yet, Ernie.

He attended Lark grade school, and then came to Olney where he became one of the best known and well liked students. This led up to Ernie being elected Popularity King which he well deserves.

Elouise Annie Williams. Along with the warm spring air on May 17, 1934, came a sweet little girl to the Williams home in Dothan, Alabama. Her parents decided to name her Elouise Annie Williams. She acquired the nickname "Sugar" before school age and her personality fits it perfectly. Elouise is 5' 3" tall, weighs 122, eyes blue, and her hair is medium brown. She is especially interested in basketball, tennis, volleyball, swimming, and baseball.

Popularity King and Queen and their attendants: Oleh Cieply, Melvin Moulton, Bob Stotz, and Ernest Hirzel. Elouise Williams, Joan Meyers, Bonita Adkins, and Marvel Wood.

Cafeteria News

Approximately three hundred boys and girls buy all or a portion of their daily lunches at our well managed school cafeteria. Very little time is lost between groups eating, as there is almost a constant line going through the cafeteria beginning with the first grade at 11:10. While one group is eating the other is either in class or in the study halls.

All the food is prepared and served by our three very efficient cooks. They receive many compliments from mothers and business people who visit our school. The price of our lunches has been held down to twenty-five cents for students and thirty cents for teachers. There is a different menu for every day of the week. This is a

Seventh Grade

There are twelve girls and thirty boys in the seventh grade. At the beginning of the year ten boys and two girls came from Lark School. Since that time Beulah Lowry, Fred Downs and Dan Beringer have joined the group.

During the first month of school, under the leadership of Mr. Dishong, the class sponsor, the following officers were elected:

President..... David Eckman
Vice President.....Richard Grant
Secretary..... Jane Florea
Treasurer..... Raymond Polster
Reporter..... Melvin Bylow

Several parties have been planned but it seemed the weather or something was always against us. Perhaps after the annual goes to press we shall have one big party with our sponsor, Mr. Dishong.

We enjoyed our Reading Circle books which were: Liberty Maid, Martin Butterfield, Passage to America, Storm of Dancerwood, Barney Hits The Trail, Capper Khan, Jamestown Adventure, Amos Fortune, and Eagle of the Sea. If we read three of them we received an Ohio State Reading Circle Seal. Four book reports are required in seventh grade English.

The honor roll was usually made up of Melvin Bylow, Nancy Chipley, Elaine Pachelieff, Dolores Simon and Jane Florea. Even though the rest of us were not at the top with our grades, we took a loyal part in all the school activities.

Eighth Grade

In the eighth grade we have thirty-two girls and twenty-four boys. From Lark School there are twelve girls and six boys. From Olney School there are eighteen girls and eighteen boys. Pat Finn came from Luckey School and Stella Cox came from Raymer School.

There are twenty members in the Library Club.

We have ten reading circle books. The names of them are: Flowers, Washington Adventure, Martha of Moosehorn, Mojave Joe, Crazy Horse, Five Sons of Italy, Elizabeth of the Mayflower, Front Page for Jennifer, Door to the North, Warren of West Point.

Four members of the eighth grade participate in the senior band, one in the junior band and one a majorette.

The honor roll students are James Bylow, Lois Childress, Gretchen Hirzel, Marilyn Hirzel, James Howell, Gary Hudson, Shirley Koenig, Carolyn Pavuk, Carol Polster, and Twila Simon.

The eighth grade took part in the Red Cross Drive and the March of Dimes.

At the beginning of the year our class chose the following officers:

Freshmen

Last September sixty-three freshmen appeared and occupied the seats in the largest home room, the main study hall, in Olney High School. Twenty-two of our group were from Olney, nineteen from Walbridge, fifteen from Lark, three from St. Thomas Aquinas, one from Central and one from another school.

Our class sponsor for the year was Mr. Crago. For leadership we chose Jack Fink as our president, David Clark as vice president, Joy Howell as secretary, Marlene Hiles as treasurer, Gayle Gallaher as reporter, and Marvin Isbell as sergeant at arms.

The following subjects were offered to us: English, algebra, junior business, general science, social science, home economics, and mechanical drawing. Many of our pupils participated in extra curricular activities. Nearly all girls joined girls' chorus. The senior band had enrolled four freshmen. Fifteen willing people served in the library club. Participating in the home economics club were sixteen girls.

A correspondence album for Junior Red Cross was arranged by Mrs. Sattler's English class. Four of our members saw action on the basketball floor with the reserves. All in all, our freshman year passed quickly.

Sophomores

The sophomore class of Olney High School started the year by adding twenty-three pupils from Walbridge. That brought the total enrollment in our class to forty-six. On account of the large number our class was divided into separate home rooms. Mr. McCollum has twenty-seven girls and Mr. Knepper has nineteen boys.

Our class has not had too much activity in the way of parties. However, we are trying to build up our treasury because we know that next year we shall have to banquet the seniors.

We have sold refreshments at all the basketball games. They consisted of popcorn. ice cream, candy, gum and pop. We have tried to let various members of the class do the selling. From this project we have cleared over a hundred dollars.

On the honor roll we have had: Barbara Fox, Paul Gabor, Barbara Hageman, Karl Hirzel. Peggy Scanlon, Lowell Simon, John Unrue, and Ronnie Weiker.

Our class officers are:

Juniors

We were joined by eighteen students from Walbridge when school started last fall. That made a class of forty-four members. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Hartsook, we elected our class officers.

At the beginning of the year we set up committees for the various activities and they have worked very diligently.

Our first project was a paper drive. Then we held a skating party at the Linda Dianne and cleared $26.50. We sold seven hundred gold pencils on which the basketball schedule was printed in blue. We took orders for sweat shirts and had a good sale. From them we made $235.68.

Our Leap Year Frolic was held February 29 in the school auditorium. Our play was in April and the Junior-Senior Prom in May.

Library Club News

The library club is organized to give students and faculty the privilege of borrowing books from the library. Students who have free periods to act as librarians, are eligible to join this worth while club.

Magazines and dictionaries, and also reference books, and fiction books are for loans.

There are about seventy-four members in our club. We are glad to welcome the Walbridge students. Mrs. Sattler is our club sponsor.

We had our initiation the first part of October. It was a great success. We hold regular meetings to discuss the problems that occur.

We hope everyone has enjoyed the use of the library throughout the year. We are grateful to those who have co-operated or helped to make the Library Club a success. Our Club Officers are:

Home Ec. Club

Any girl who is enrolled or has taken home economics is eligible for membership.

The club held a Christmas party on December 14. Plans are being made to go to the Gas Company for a demonstration and tour of the kitchens. The girls who are interested will go to Bowling Green University for the Home Economics Department Open House in the spring.

The purpose of the Home Ec. Club is as follows:

1. To promote growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of home-making.
2. To further interest in Home Economics.
3. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
4. To develop social ability and to be able to meet new people and to adapt ourselves to different situations.

Junior Red Cross

Olney is affiliated with the Toledo Chapter of the American Junior Red Cross. Last year our school served by completing several hundred tray favors for both Easter and Fourth of July. One hundred sixty-seven schools in our area are working on such projects as National Children's Fund, Gift Boxes, International School Art, International School Correspondence Albums, Production and Distribution of Afghans, Toy Chests for Local Tuberculosis Hospital, Holiday Favors, and several other related service activities.

This year our elementary grades are going to contribute the Easter holiday favors. Our high school will participate in an International Correspondence Album. This album will be sent oveseas and we will receive one from some school across the ocean. A friendship and understanding with other countries is a paying result of this work.

Our entry in the 1951 "Crisstown" with the Toledo Junior Red Cross reads thus:

Olney School
Sponsor—Mrs. Ruth Rideout (Elementary)
Mrs. Eugene Sattler (High School)

There are twelve classes enrolled in Junior Red Cross at Olney School.

At Easter time, the High School group made 300 holiday favors. It was hoped that the men, who received them, had as much enjoyment from them as the group had in making the remembrances.

Ten Junior Red Cross gift boxes were filled by the elementary students to be shipped overseas.

Some of our students have attended council meetings in Toledo.

Mothers Club

April, 1951—The regular meeting of the Olney Mothers Club was held in the school library. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President.....Mrs. Betty Sutton
Vice President.....Mrs. Rosalie Hirzel
Secretary.....Mrs. Evelyn Feick
Treasurer.....Mrs. Emma Grau
Correspondence Secretary.....Mrs. Gladys Neal

May—The club held a potluck supper for their families and friends. A movie was held to use the new sound system that had been purchased by the school board and the club.

July—The annual mothers club picnic was held at Glauser's cottage at Lakeside, Michigan.

September—The first meeting of the school year was held in the music room. The club was happy to welcome the Walbridge Mothers into our group.

October—The reception for the teachers was a highlight of the October meeting. The Fall Festival was also held Friday, October 26.

November—The club was entertained at this meeting with a movie shown by the Crystal Laundry.

December—The annual Christmas Party was held in the Home Economics Room with the members planning and preparing the dinner. The tree was trimmed in the hallway and the grade children were given their annual Christmas treat.

January—Plans were made for a style show to be held later in the year.

February—An educational talk on using the deep freezer was given by Anne Klotz. The Room-Mothers helped their teachers with the Valentine Parties and furnished treats for their various rooms. The club toured Grace Smith's Cafeteria and Tiedtke's on February 21. Everyone enjoyed these tours.

March—A card party was held at the Edison Institute on March 20. The style show and tea were held at the school. Plans were also made for the annual Athletic Banquet.

Boy Scouts Troop No. 139

The Boy Scout Troop #139 is sponsored by the Mother's Club of Olney School. The present organization started in the year 1939-1940 and has been chartered annually since that date.

Previous to this troop, there existed a Boy Scout Troop which met in the Old Olney building under Scout Master, Ernest Glauser.

The Scout Masters of Troop #139 in their order of service have been Milford Dishong, Alfred Farmer, Harold Meyers and Ira Miller who is the present leader. Mr. Miller has been Scoutmaster for six years.

Last year the troop consisted of twenty-seven members. Registration for charter takes place on February 1, of each year. This year there were fourteen active members registered.

The troop was represented at Camp Miakonda last summer during the week of July 22 by eleven scouts. Reservations have been made for Elm Camp for the week of July 13, 1952.

The registered leaders of the troop for 1952 besides Mr. Miller, are: R. Williams of Genoa, Assistant Scoutmaster, Merlin Rolfes and J. C. Loudenslager as Committeemen for the troop.

The troop meets regularly on Thursday night at 7:30 in the school building.

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts of Olney School, troop #274, was organized in November, 1949, under the leadership of Mrs. Gladys Childress and Mrs. Norman Polster. They are sponsored by the Olney Mothers Club.

Due to the different age levels the girls have been divided into three groups, known as group One, Two, and Three. Officers for group One are: President—Carol Polster, Secretary—Gwen Ann Meyers, Treasurer—Barbara Van Gunten. Officers for group Two are: President—Judy Bristow, Secretary—Darla Coy, Treasurer—Bonnie Hessick. Second half: President—Judy Bristow, Vice President—Patty Martin, Secretary—Gloria Bailey, Treasurer—Norma J. Keller. Brownies

Brownies are young girls, seven to nine, who are getting ready for "Girl Scouting". Right now they just love to giggle, play, dance and make many clever articles. The "Brownies" have made a scrap book and have put in to it one of everything they have made this past year. They are contacting other countries that have "Brownies" Troops, in hopes to exchange it for something they have made. In this way we can get our world pins.

Brownies have been taught the Brownie Promise and its meaning. They carry out their own meeting by having a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, and Reporter, under the guidance of Mrs. Florence Caris, Mrs. Gladys Neal, Mrs. Emma Grau, Mrs. Marie Miller, and Mrs. James Bristow.

Brownies are free to ask questions and make suggestions. At first they were timid but after expressing their likes and dislikes we have found they co-operate and get along fine together.

The Brownies themselves learn and teach their own songs. They have made many nice articles this past year; dolls, beanbags, games, pictures, etc.

With the school year coming to an end they are looking forward to going to summer camp out to the University of Toledo.

We are sure with this year coming to a close we have had a full and successful year and are planning and looking forward to next year's new Brownies.

Honor Society

Our charter number 2307, was granted by the National Honor Society, May 1, 1946. Its purpose was to encourage Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship in our school. The students who drew up the constitution were Keith Cramer, Robert Kurfis, Mary Rideout, and Angela Wasserman. For three years, any student whose total average of grades was a "B", was eligible for application to membership in the club. During that time the above four people were joined by Mary Swartz, Robert King, Betty Taylor, Patricia Stanger, Thelma Brossia, Beatrice Black, Norma Lee Croak, Mary Lou Flamion, and Don Sondergeld. Then it was decided that any student who did not earn a yearly average of either an "A" or "B" would not be allowed to join the club. Verne Simon and Gaylord Francis were the lucky ones to be included in the society under the new ruling. From the nineteen fifty class, Beatrice Stemen, Barbara Karlene, and Eleanor Garner were added.

Our chorus had planned and worked hard for the Christmas program, but it was canceled because we had no school.

This year twelve of our members were chosen to go to the County Music Festival which was held at Bowling Green, April 4.

In addition to the Christmas program we sang for the spring music festival and commencement.

This year we had thirty-one members: nineteen juniors and twelve seniors.

Senior Band News

The Senior Band now has a membership of twenty six. At the first of the school year the band received three new members. These were: John Waite, Richard Herrington, and Robert Moore. There are five seniors from the band that will be graduating this year, Tom Pachelieff, Oleh Cieply, Marlene Simpson, Joann Hatt and Beverly Cramer.

The band played at all the home basketball games and the majorettes twirled. We have four majorettes. They are: Georgena Simpson, Janet Meyers, Marilyn Hirzel, and Beverly Cramer.

The band opened the program for the Fall Festival on Friday, October 26, 1951. In addition to two marches we played the "Gypsy Festival Overture."

Our band was invited by the Toledo Museum of Art to attend a program given by the Cleveland Symphony on Monday, November 19, 1951. Most of the members attended and found the program very interesting.

We have two members who will play in the 100 piece band for the all county festival to be held April 4, 1952. They are: Ronnie Sutter and Karl Hirzel.

Junior Band

The purpose of the Junior Band is to prepare students for Senior Band. The beginning players are admitted to Junior Band as soon as they have mastered a few basic fundamentals of the instrument they play. The length of time spent in Junior Band is determined by the pupil's progress. When any pupil is ready for Senior Band, the director arranges for the Senior Band officers to give that group a test. After the test is given, the officers vote and the result of their voting determines whether or not the pupil is admitted to Senior Band. This year tests were given in the Fall and Spring. The Junior Band played at the Fall Festival. In the band there is one tuba, one oboe, four clarinets, four drums, two trumpets, one trombone, one baritone, and one saxophone.

First Grade News

The enrollment for the First Grade in September, 1951, was forty children, fifteen girls and twenty-five boys. Since that time Richard Rideout and Roy Coffman have moved to new schools.

Judy Thompson from St. Thomas School, John Beringer from Spring School, and Joan Payne from Alabama have entered our grade.

During the school year we held a Halloween party, a Christmas party, and a Valentine party. We seemed to enjoy our Valentine Party more than the other parties. Each one of us made his own Valentine box. We also enjoyed the lunch of ice cream and cake served by the mothers.

One of our most important projects of the year was the collection of sales tax stamps. We were very proud of the check for $18.19 which we earned by collecting these stamps.

With this money we purchased a set of rhythm records and some supplementary readers.

At the close of school in May we found that we had spent a very busy first year in school and had made many new friends. We look forward to another busy year next year.

Second Grade News

School opened on September 4, with twenty-five children ready to enroll in the second grade. Five more came since that time making a total of thirty pupils.

The children have enjoyed so much the new library books for which the School Board gave Miss Dalton ten dollars.

The Mothers Club has given the room five dollars which was invested in games. They were used in the room on bad weather days. The children have worked very hard saving sales tax stamps. They are using the tax redemption money for games in the room also.

Supt. Loudenslager gave the second grade the Ohio Scholarship test in December. This was the first experience the children have had in working on scholarship tests and they worked very hard and attentively.

The children have finished the Snow and Ice Mural which they have been making. This is a picture as they have seen the Ice Skating Pond west of the school building. They have liked this work in free art very much. All of the children have taken part in this art work and have at least one free hand picture they drew on the mural. This will be placed on the south wall of the second grade room.

The children have made the transition from manuscript to cursive writing very well. As a result they are looking forward to entering the third grade in the fall. They feel quite confident about their accomplishments. Miss Dalton is enjoying very much working with this second grade.

Third Grade News

When the fall term opened in September we had an enrollment of forty-three students. That number increased during the year to a total of forty-six.

This year we have enjoyed a new privilege not afforded third-graders in the past. The Bookmobile Unit gave us the opportunity of using its library. We have thus been able to read and enjoy many more books.

The Mother's Club gave us all of the new Reading Circle books published this year. They also gave us five dollars to be used for our room. We do appreciate their generosity in these gifts to us.

The Board of Education gave us ten dollars with which we were able to buy fifteen books. All in all we had twenty-five new books for our room.

We work all year by reading and reporting on Reading Circle books so as to obtain a Certificate when school closes in May.

Our class contributed over eight dollars to the Red Cross and over ten dollars to the March of Dimes. We also are filling two boxes for the Red Cross.

Fourth Grade News

Last September twenty boys and fifteen girls began the fourth grade. During the year Nadine Rideout and Eva Mae Coffman moved away. Since then Evangeline Gonzales and Virginia Beringer joined our class. Now we still have thirty-five children in our room.

Pupils who have had perfect attendance are Sammy Bradfield, Myron Busson, Patrick Frye, Gail Grove, Thomas Jennings, Charles Keller, Jack Matson, Dennis Miller, Gary Shope, Richard Varwig, Janice Bristow, and Linda Lou Williams.

We enjoyed the Fall Festival, Halloween Party, Christmas Party and a Valentine Party.

The Mothers Club's gifts of Reading Circle books and other books given to our room library were much appreciated. Most of the children read them and get much happiness from the pictures and stories.

We have joined the Junior Red Cross, contributed to the March of Dimes and plan to fill two boxes for the Junior Red Cross to send to Children in other lands.

Fifth Grade News

The enrollment in the fifth grade ranged between thirty-two and thirty-five pupils. We gained Adora Rhinehart, Linda Payne, and Jim Tucker, but the latter withdrew.

The work and studying were broken up during the year by lots of good times. At Halloween time we enjoyed making paper masks and dressing up for the parade through the upper grades. We had lots of fun decorating our Christmas tree. Because of the bad weather we waited until after the Christmas vacation for our gift exchange and party. February 14 found us all exchanging "Be My Valentine" cards—some pretty and some funny.

We think we did lots of art work in the fifth grade. Every holiday we made some decoration for our room. In between holidays we worked with paints and crayons.

Many fifth graders now wonder why they ever thought long division was hard. Why, it was easy—after we learned how! But long division and fractions made us work hard.

Our science was interesting because we had a number of experiments to do. We're glad the high school let us borrow some of its equipment.

We had two spelling contests in our grade. Twice a week each team lined up and we got a chance to move ahead if the person in front couldn't spell the word and we could. The one who stayed at the head of the line received a mark. We want to thank the Mothers Club for our ten new Reading Circle books and the Board for the $10 they gave us for books.

Sixth Grade News

The sixth grade consisted of thirty-eight members, eighteen boys and twenty girls.

The new comers to our class who started out with us this year were Roselee Hammell and Donald Koenig. During the year Alice Fuentes joined us for three weeks, then left for Texas. We enjoyed having her in our class so much that over half the class carried on correspondence with her. We learned many things about Texas first hand. We learned a few Spanish words and sayings also. Mary Ann Dixson joined us during the tenth week of school.

The first party of the year was the "You Cook It" party, in which everything that was brought was made by the members of the class. Everybody had an over flowing plate. There were no bad after effects.

The Halloween party proved to be a lot of fun. Charles Neal got first prize for his girl costume and girlish manners. The Christmas party came after Christmas vacation due to bad weather. The Valentine party and program were enjoyed by all. We remember Richard Schultz for the special treats at these parties; also the treats and help from the Room Mothers, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Coy and Mrs. Walters.

The Reading Circle books which the Mothers Club gave us were very interesting and most of us earned our seals. We joined the Junior Red Cross and Polio drive.

Patrick D. Gibbons, Superintendent of Walbridge Elementary School

There have been a great many changes in our school system this year. Our high school students are now going to Olney High School. This has relieved our crowded situation in this building at Walbridge very much. We are now able to separate the grades and have one teacher for each. This has been a great improvement to the school. The teacher is now able to concentrate her efforts on the education of one group. It also enables us to carry out our idea of no failures to a better degree. This enables each child to stay with his own age group all the way through school, and thus increases his chances of staying in school and graduating from high school.

For the first time in the history of the Walbridge School District some of the elementary pupils and all the high school students are riding on a bus. The first trip on the bus to Olney was not a very gay one as some tears were noticed from our seat as we passed the school in Walbridge. We would like to thank the Olney Board of Education and Mr. Loudenslager, first, for inviting us to attend their school and second, for the nice reception we received when we started to attend.

The pupils that left Walbridge High School would like to thank Mr. Gibbons for all he did to help us keep our school in Walbridge, and also, for all the things he tried to do to relieve us of being discouraged in coming to Olney.

Walbridge First Grade News

With the opening of the Fall Term, twenty-eight fine youngsters journeyed to Walbridge School to enroll. Most of them had never attended kindergarten, so it was quite novel. Within a week all of them had become accustomed to school routine and were ready to learn to read and write.

The First Grade made a very commendable showing in the Annual Magazine Sale, winning second honors, having lost to the Seventh Grade by a very close margin.

Our first organized party was at Halloween. After the usual parade on the neighboring streets, the children returned to their class room to participate in the games that had been planned and to enjoy the refreshments which were furnished by some of the room mothers.

Another party which the children looked forward to and which proved to be very exciting and entertaining was the Christmas party. There was a Christmas exchange and everyone seemed pleased with his gift. The Christmas tree was furnished by the Parent-Teachers Association, as is their usual custom. Some of the mothers furnished the refreshments.

A Valentine party was held and the children enjoyed their first Valentine exchange and the refreshments which followed.

At the opening of our fall term we had twenty-six pupils enrolled. By the end of the year Billy Cooper, Budy Weatherholtz, Andrew Gray, and Benedict Riggio increased our enrollment to thirty. This year marked Mrs. Kelly's third year as the second grade teacher.

We have some nice parties during the year. A masquerade at Halloween and at Christmas time we make our own tree decorations. Our tree was furnished by the P.T.A. Many thanks to them. The mothers furnished the cookies for our parties. We have an Easter party, too. We make our own baskets and fill them with candy. We have games and prizes at our parties to make them more fun.

On the last day of school we have a party and games outdoors.

This year we sold magazines to buy things for our room. We save tax stamps, too.

In the second grade we change from manuscript to cursive writing. We enjoy this and have fun trying to make the letters correctly.

We want to thank the P.T.A. and Mother's Club for our chairs, and also thank the V.F.W. for remembering us with a very nice treat at Christmas time.

Walbridge Third Grade News

There hasn't been much change in our enrollment this year—Linda Duval moved away—now our regular attendance is thirty-five.

Mrs. Finney and Mrs. Ducket are our Home Room Mothers and they have given two very nice parties for us. At the Halloween Party, we masked and paraded down Main St.—came back to our room and prizes were given on their costumes. The two mothers had planned several games with prizes. Then the ice cream and cake was served, and thoroughly enjoyed. Also Mrs. Rath and Mrs. Unrue baked clever cookies for the children. At Christmas, they gave another nice party with games, prizes and a gift exchange. Again ice cream and cake was served. Mrs. Matheney baked for this party too.

We were pleasantly surprised by the V.F.W. Post—who had a Christmas "Treat" for every youngster in the school and a delicious box of chocolates for each teacher. We thank them again for their thoughtfulness.

We have had several cases of Whooping Cough and Chicken Pox—sorry to have the youngsters ill, and to miss so much school.

We are very proud of the chairs which the Mothers Club bought us, and thank them so much.

Walbridge Fourth Grade News

The Fourth Grade is the half way mark, the pivotal year, for school children whose inspiring work cannot be praised too highly. As I look back into the yesterdays of this school year, I see many incidences—some happy; some sad—but all the happenings made the pupils stronger in character and the will of determination to continue down the road to the end of the school year in May, 1952.

Not one of the band of Fourth Graders was lost. The 1951-1952 school year began on time with twenty-five happy—fun loving, beautiful and handsome, honest and trusting, gladsome girls and boys.

Tommy Vance, a lawyer's son, had come to reside in the community, and was here in time to be enrolled the very first day of this school year.

Norbert Mossing from the Cherry Street School, Toledo, Ohio, was enrolled later in the Autumn.

Fourth Grade studies include: spelling, writing, reading, arithmetic, history, health, English and geography. During the first semester, instructions in rudiments of music by Mrs. Ruddick were given.

I truly hope the forthcoming years will be so arranged that this year's Fourth Graders will continue as an unbroken class and at the termintaion of their school work will so live to be honored citizens of the community in which they some day will reside.

Walbridge Fifth Grade News

Seldom is such a well proportioned class found in the schoolroom. With thirteen boys and the same number of girls, we have had an ideal situation and this being the first year for the group to be separated from another grade, we find it easier to do our work without the usual distractions of listening to others recite and watching them work. We have tried to establish good habits of health, safety, citizenship, and study. Due to illness, our attendance record was not what we wished it to be.

We have enjoyed our travels through the Americas, especially the States and with slides and films many places became more of a reality to us. Our study of the growth of our country has helped us to better appreciate the advantages we have in living in so great a land and to honor the memory of those who worked, fought, and sacrificed to make it so great a Democracy.

Remembering the old adage "all work and no play", we have had our periods of recreation in the gym, on the playground, in the room, and at parties in which we practiced co-operation and leadership.

Walbridge Sixth Grade News

Aren't we a nice looking class? We're just as nice as we look and we're happy too. Everyone has enjoyed working and playing together like a big happy family.

Our goal has been to become one of the best sixth grades in the county. In our own minds, at least, we have succeeded.

At the beginning of the year we decided to make our room a little democracy with everyone helping to make the rules and everyone helping to enforce them. This proved to be a most successful and happy plan.

Getting our work thoroughly has been our first aim. This took plenty of hard work but we found the harder we worked the more we enjoyed our subjects and the more interesting they became.

We've had lots of activity, too, including baseball, basketball, nature hikes and holiday parties.

All in all this has been a grand year for all of us and we hate to see it end.

Our wish for each and all of us is that future years will hold much happiness and success for each of us and may we look back on this year as having contributed something, at least in a small measure, toward that end.

Walbridge Seventh Grade News

The seventh grade in Walbridge has been rather busy. We have had several parties to keep up our social life but we have also done a lot of extra work in school. We had Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine parties. They were all very nice but the food was especially good.

One of the things that we did for our science lessons was very interesting. We started to collect rocks because we were studying about the earth's different rock formations but then we changed from collecting rocks to bringing shells. Now we have a rather large collection of coral and shells from not only the Great Lakes, but from the Atlantic and Pacific oceans too. We have spent quite a bit of time trying to find the names of some of these shells.

One of our achievements that we take greatest pride in is selling the most magazines in the school's magazine campaign. We bought the filmstrip of Charles Dicken's "A Christmas Carol" and some art supplies with the money we earned.

When we were studying our communities laws and how they are enforced by the Police and the State Highway Patrol, we had Corporal Lovejoy of the Ohio State Highway Patrol come to school. He told us about the Highway Patrol and showed us how a Patrol Car's radio is operated.

The people who have served as our class officers for the year are: President, Billie Risner; Vice-President, Frank East; Secretary, Sharon Gast; and Treasurer, Dewaine Lusher.

Walbridge Eighth Grade News

The school year started in September with nineteen pupils and Mr. Gibbons, the Principal, as our teacher. The studies in our eighth year are mathematics, English, Literature, science, American history, spelling, and penmanship. We also had music during the first quarter of the year but Mrs. Rudduck and her family moved to Washington, D. C. and thus we were left without a teacher. During the year two of our pupils, Terry Cavanaugh and Minnie Smith, have withdrawn from school and moved away. New pupils this year are Larry Gartin, from West Palm Beach, Florida, and Kay Jacobs, from Lime City School, Ohio. Our room is the Science and Mathematics room that was used by the high school last year. This is the room Miss Louy had last year. We like it better staying in one room and having one teacher for all our subjects. We have physical education everyday for thirty minutes in the afternoon. Five members of our class are on the basketball team. They are Dale Christiansen, David Sandy, John Bahnsen, Garred Manning, and Larry Gartin. John Bahnsen was elected captain of the team. The cheerleaders were also chosen from our class. They are two Sandys, Middaugh and Silcox. We are enjoying the visits of the Bookmobile every third week. It comes from the Public Library in Bowling Green. We wish the librarian would allow us to take out some of the books reserved for the high school students. We are looking forward with a great deal of anticipation to next year when we will be Freshmen in high school.

We also would like to thank the staff of Olney year book for inviting us to have a part in its annual.

Lark First And Second Grade News

The First Grade has been busy this year learning to read and make our names look as nice as they can.

There are so many new things to do, that each one needs to learn to use their eyes, ears and hands if we are going to do our work.

We try each month to make a new picture telling about that particular month.

The Second Grade has been busy reviewing last year's work and starting their new work. They, too, need to try very hard if they expect to finish all the new things before the end of the year.

Lark Second And Third Grade News

We have five children who have not been absent or tardy.

We have been discussing good breakfasts and bringing in pictures for our health scrapbook.

The third grade has been doing very well in spelling. Last Friday everyone got a 100.

The second grade has had lots of fun playing store. We think it is helping us with our arithmetic.

The third grade has just begun writing with ball point pens. We like it very much.

Lark Third And Fourth Grade News

Our third grade planned and made Mr. Bond's farm on our sandtable. Then we each wrote a short paragraph about something in connection with the farm for our English lessons.

The fourth grade made a scrap book about Indians and added it to our library.

The fourth grade is making a scrap book of post-marks. We think this will help us in geography.

In the third grade we are planning good meals for one day and bring pictures of the meals the next day.

We are learning to square dance.

We have ten pupils who haven't been tardy or absent.

Lark Fifth And Sixth Grades

At the end of the first quarter the following pupils were on the honor roll: Lonna Bland, Charlotte Van Sickle, Calvin Eckman, Janet Everhardt, Joyce Reining, Jimmy Lanier, and Judy Stewart.

On November 29, we gave our operetta entitled "Lazy Town". Those in our room who had leading parts were, Charlotte Van Sickle, Calvin Eckman, Jimmy Lanier, Jim Mohn, Gus George, Robert Carpenter, Lonna Bland, Judy Stotz, Janet Everhardt, Marcia Stewart, Joyce Reining, and Lila Butler. Nellie, the donkey, was played by Freddie McLaughlin and Eugene Hammye.

At the November P.T.A. meeting all of the children, from the first through the eighth grade, met in our room and organized a C.T.A. with Miss Topping's leadership. The following officers were elected: President—Charlotte Van Sickle, Vice President—Calvin Eckman, Secretary and Treasurer—Lonna Bland. The president appointed a kitchen and program committee. We will continue to meet upstairs while the P.T.A. meets downstairs and will take care of our own program and refreshments.

We are very grateful to the school board for giving us $10 to spend for new library books. We appreciate them very much.

Production Staff

On December 5 and 6, the play, "Seventeen Is Terrific," was given by the senior class. In helping make this a huge success, the production staff played a great part. The posters, under careful consideration, were made by Bill Middaugh and Melvin Hall. The tickets and money were handled by Joyce Pringle and Wanda Cunningham, who did a fine job with both. The programs were typed and mimeographed by Ernest Hirzel. The stage managers, who did excellent jobs, were Melvin Moulton and Bill McMullen. Their job was to see that the stage was in perfect condition before pulling the curtains. They had to see that the lighting arrangements and sound effects were all checked too. And also playing an important part were the assistant directors, Joyce Allen and Marie Fox. They saw to it that the players were prompted at the right time and also directed them at all of the rehearsals. These two girls did an excellent job and were a great help. And last, but not least, we come to the most important person, the director, Mrs. Loudenslager. Mrs. Loudenslager took on just double the responsibility and work as she has had in previous years. She did a tremendous job, and we are all grateful to her.

This is the production staff, who did the work of an army in helping present the senior class play for 1952, "Seventeen Is Terrific."

Commencement Day

Your school days are over, your books laid aside,
Never again to be read;
For the days that were happy and carefree and gay,
Are the days that forever have fled.

Life, with her problems and lessons severe,
Has added your name to her roll;
And you have commenced the long path to be trod,
Before you can win to your goal.

"May your pathway of Life be made easy and smooth,
And your efforts along its bright way
Be crowned with success, is the wish of your friends,
On this, your Commencement Day."

Memories

They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the places they blessed with their presence of love.
